Developing Skills Centres

The Second Öresund Symposium on Clinical Skills Training

November 22, 2005

Lund, Sweden

Objectives of the Symposium:

- to give health professionals, politicians and health officials a view of the role, need and possibilities of clinical skills training
- to report on the ongoing development of skills training in Denmark and Sweden
- to discuss the need of training the trainers
- to elucidate the association between simulated training, accreditation of health professionals, and improved patient safety
